ORDER GRANTING REQUEST FOR PERMISSION TO AMEND RESPONSE TO QUESTIONS

(Issued February 7, 2001)

On January 23, 2001, the Consumer Advocate Division of the Department of Justice (Consumer Advocate) filed a Request for Permission to Amend Response to Questions. In its Request, the Consumer Advocate states that a portion of Mr. Drennan's testimony answering question one posed by the undersigned was inadvertently left out due to a word processing error. The Consumer Advocate also alerts the parties and the undersigned to a correction to its answer to question nine, changing the word "complainant", to the word "respondent" in the last sentence of the response.

America's Tele-Network, Corp. and John W. Little (AT-N) did not file a response to the Consumer Advocate's request.

The Consumer Advocate's request should be granted.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED:

1. The Consumer Advocate's Request for Permission to Amend Response to Questions is hereby granted. Mr. Drennan's testimony answering question one is amended to include the additional information as stated in the request.
2. The correction to the answer to question nine is noted.
